

How often should you review and update your trust, will, or estate?

See your attorney, if

1. Someone in your trust dies.
2. Someone in your trust becomes disabled and is receiving government benefits.
3. You changed your mind about who gets what.
4. You changed your mind on who carries out your trust.
5. You have new real estate to transfer into your trust and need a deed prepared.
6. Your Financials changed.
7. You started a new business.
8. You moved, laws vary from state to state.

The Law offices of Frederick Pellegrini can help you review your trust, will and estate for any necessary changes. Call us at 781-329-1060.
